

McMaster Gallery

Gallery Calendar 2006-7 Season

McMaster Gallery in the Department of Art of the University of South Carolina. McMaster Gallery is located at 1615 Senate Street, Columbia, SC. Gallery hours are M-F 9-4:30 Sunday 1- 4. Closed during University Holidays. For more information contact: Mana Hewitt, Gallery Director (803)777-7480 or email: mana@sc.edu

EMBLEMATICAugust 29 – September 29th

An invitational exhibition of representational paintings by noted southern painters: Jim Barsness (GA), Scott Belville (GA), Robert Durham, (TN) Scott Eagle (NC), Sara Frankel (SC), Tyrone Geter (SC), Kate Kretz (NC), Richard Heipp (FL), Mark Messersmith (FL), and Marilyn Murphy (TN).

Mark BurlesonOctober 12 – November 17

An exhibition of ceramic wall pieces by Atlanta artist Mark Burleson. Marks' work incorporates decorative and representational imagery through the use of multi-media glazing techniques that create uniquely colorful compositions.

BFA & MFA Exhibitions November 21 – December 17

Weeklong exhibitions of works by graduating BFA or MFA candidates. Individates TBA.

Annette Barbier.....January 16 – Feb 14, 2007

An exhibition that explores the expressive possibilities of new media – computer animation, virtual interactive worlds and electronic installation. Annette Barbier is an artist and educator and chair of Columbia College of Chicago's Department of Interactive Arts and Media.

51st Annual USC Student Art Exhibition.....February 19 – 24, 2007

Winston Wingo.....March 1 – 30, 2007

A exhibition of Bronze sculptures by South Carolina artist and educator, Winston Wingo. The works explore his ever evolving interest in urban-related themes.

BFA & MFA Exhibitions..... April 2 – 14

Weeklong exhibitions of works by graduating BFA or MFA candidates. Individates TBA.

USC Faculty Exhibit in conjunction with Now This Is Columbia..... April 27 – June 15